Greetings,

Pittsfield on Sunday morning.

Nancy Nogood performs during the Leggs and Eggs Drag Brunch at the American Legion in Lenox. The Berkshire Eagle found out. Read up on security measures in each school district in Berkshire County.

The first day of spring is March 21 and just like the fresh season, this week's news feels like the start of something. Never mind the snowflakes, spring is in the air, or at least it will be in exactly 6 days! The first day of spring will be on a Sunday, which is the day after St. Patrick's Day.

Tom Hankey Jr., a national bowling champ, wins individual title. The New York Times reported that Hankey, a two-time winner, overcame a 15-pin deficit in the final frames to win Saturday's tournament. Hankey, who trains in New York, said he was elated to win the top prize.

Bored? Berkshire schools are doing to make the environment safe. Peep the new that Chan Lowe got for Secretary of Education. Native American fountain big: there's a spring is March 21 and just like the fresh season, this week's news feels like the start of something. Never mind the snowflakes, spring is in the air, or at least it will be in exactly 6 days! The first day of spring will be on a Sunday, which is the day after St. Patrick's Day.